Professional Expertise

Jack joined the team in the summer of 2020 and has worked in the commercial real estate investment and management industry for over 13 years. With his background in commercial development and brokerage, where he represented both tenants and landlords, he brings a well-rounded and unique perspective to his role in property management. Specializing in retail, office, and industrial, he is committed to assisting property investors in meeting their unique short-term expectations and long-term goals. Jack operates with a strong sense of integrity and professionalism and values building meaningful relationships with both owners and tenants.

Outside of work, Jack enjoys spending time with family and friends. He and his wife, Sydni, are eager for their baby boy to arrive in November 2020. Jack's favorite hobbies are boating, golfing, water sports, and home improvement projects and he will never pass up the opportunity to eat Mexican food.
